A reference, undated, is made to this marriage in an early copy of The Australian Genealogist, but it is undated. However, it is clear that after the death, 20 April, 1819, of "Dr." Charles O'Connell, of Tralee, his children lived at Darrinane with their third cousins, and, indeed, were married from 30 (now 58) Merrion Square, the Liberator's Town House. Charles D. and Frances had
